FUNERALS.

John Lynch.

The funeral of John Lynch, whose death occurred at his home in Fitch-ville Wednesday evening, was held from St. John's church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Paul Piechocki of Colchester, and the church several selections were rendered by the organist, Miss Henrietta Authier.
The choir was assisted by Charles Kingberger and sister, Fannie Griffin. During the services Mr. King-berger briefly rendered a eulogy on the deceased. The remains were remains were conveyed to St. Andrew's cemetery, Colchester. The bearers were John and Patrick Lynch of Fitchville, Thomas Sullivan of Norwich and Joseph Moriarty of Worcester.
Relatives and friends were present from Naugatuck, Willimantic, Boston, Worcester and nearby towns.

Samuel F. Allen.

At 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon the funeral of Samuel F. Allen was held from his late home at Fitchville, Mont-ville. There were many relatives and friends in attendance, the services being conducted by Rev. G. C. Chappell of Colchester. The choir sang a hymn.
There were many flowers, and the bearers were the four sons, George, Charles, Norman and Henry Allen. Relatives and friends were present from Norwich, New London and Colchester. Burial was in Colchester cemetery, where a committal service was read.

Mrs. Edward Goff.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. E. J. Goff, widow of Edward Goff, was held from the home of James Manwaring in Montville. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M.
Hend, pastor of St. John's church. There were many relatives and friends in attendance, and the bearers were Norman Boynton, Paul Giambrone, H. W. Howell and Marvin Pierce. Burial was in Colchester, where a committal service was read. Henry Allen & Son had charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. Goff was born in Colchester nearly 75 years ago. She had not been sick long, but she had been feeble, and death was the result of age. She passed away Friday at the home where she had been for some time. She was 85 years of age. She is survived by one son, Rev. A. E. Goff of Flanders.

Miss May Kingley.

Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, the funeral of Miss May Kingley was held from her late home, and at St.
John's church. The services were conducted by Rev. Paul Piechocki of Colchester. The choir sang under the direction of the organist, Miss Henrietta Authier. Burial was in Colchester, where a committal service was read. The bear-
and Joseph Moriarty of Worcester.
Relatives and friends were present
from Naugatuck, Willimantic, Boston, Worcester and nearby towns.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Monday, March 4, 1912.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Although the ice was rough, there was skating on the small ponds Saturday.

About the state it is noted that the phone bill has arrived bag and bug-gale, a full month before due.

The court of common pleas will be in session here today at 10 o'clock for the trial of the case of Mitchell vs.
Gillman.

There were sixty-five deaths from violence in Connecticut during February, as compared with fifty in the month preceding.

James McLaughlin of Norwich has been in Montville, purchasing several hundred poles and is shipping them to the S. N. E. Telephone company.

Rev. J. H. Norwood of Norwich, the district superintendent, will preach at the M. E. church in Colchester, Sunday evening, March 10.

The Massasoit mill at Oakdale is to install a new 130-horsepower engine, which is at the Montville railroad station, waiting to be hauled to the factory.

While the law on picketed went into effect March 1, for March and April, it is lawful to catch perch, so that some fishing through the ice will be done yet.

Norwich members of the Connecticut State Pharmaceutical association learn that the June meeting will be held at the Hotel Pembroke, Woodstock, June 19 and 20.

The men's meeting at the New London Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4 p. m., was addressed by Rev. Joseph H. Selden, formerly of Norwich, whose theme was Loyalty to Our Better Self.

The final account of Fred C. Tilton, trustee of the bankrupt estate of J. J.
O'Donovan of Norwich, has been accepted. There is a balance of $396.32 to be distributed among the creditors.

With morning temperatures of ten or twelve degrees, and 34 inches of frost in the ground, the water department bids fair to have a record winter and spring, thawing water pipes.

Eight tons of groceries, including large quantities of rice and beans, have arrived for the government forts on Fishers, Gull and Plum islands, and many more tons are to be taken over on the government transport.

Tax officials from many parts of the state will accept the invitation to assessors to attend a meeting of the city and town officials at Hartford March 12 to discuss in general way the matter of levying and collecting taxes.

Extension of time to something more than 100 corporations has been granted by the collector of internal revenue for this district to those which could not get their returns filed by March 1 at 4 p. m. under the federal corporation law.

New London is making plans for a great white way for State and Bank streets and Montauk avenue. They plan to increase the arc lights and reduce the gas bills. A plea for lower gas rates for the local consumers was made to the gas company.

The Connecticut agricultural college at Storrs loses a popular man this week. Augustus L. Brundage, a member of last year's graduating class, retires from the college to take the place of head gardener on the estate of H. B. Mallory in Danbury.

The gross operating revenue of the Connecticut steam railroads for the year included in the railroad commissioner's report was $46,435,833. An increase of $1,676,133.77 over the revenue of the previous year and exceeding that of any previous year.

At a farmers institute at the Methuist church in North Canton Tuesday, under the auspices of the state board of agriculture, the address of the morning will be given by George S. Cosgrove of Willington, on The Raising of Poultry as a Business.

Midway yard is congested to overflowing with freight cars, so that work is carried on there under serious difficulties. The greater number of the cars are bound west and east, and possibly they are being hustled to Hartford river and points further west.

J. H. Tubbs of New London has been made receiver for the Tate & Nelson store in New London. It is claimed that liabilities exceed $20,000 and assets not over $10,000. Creditors want to pay 35 per cent. cash to the general creditors and take the business.

Twelve which have received their state grants of school money for the year include North Stonington $353;

583.75; Falls district, Norwich $504; Sprague $1,469.25; Putnam $3,397.50; Salmon $245.25.

A Manchester correspondent writes:
The work of constructing the Hartford Colchester & Norwich trolley line, suspended last fall, is to be resumed about April 1. Most of the grading has been done as far as Hill-town and there is little more to be done before the rails can be laid.

The Meriden Journal says: Rev.
Elliot Bates Barber, pastor of the Universalist church in Meriden, considered the sermon at the first of the mid-Lenten services of St. Paul's church last evening. He took for his subject, "Herein is my Father glorified." A large congregation was deeply impressed by his remarks.

It was an interesting fact that at the funeral of Major Frank S. Bond, the bearers were gardeners on his estate, in whose welfare he was greatly interested. An entire car was required to convey the magnificent floral pieces, which came from all over the country. In the Bond family plot at Baltic cemetery, where burial took place, his father, mother and brother are buried.

The large attendance at the Friday and Sunday evening Lenten services was commended Sunday morning by Rev. Hugh Treanor, who preached at the 7:30 mass on the folly of entering one's home on earth things, which are perishable and transitory, so many men, women and children received Holy Communion at this mass that Father Treanor had to have the assistance of Rev. William F. Canamagh.

Dairy and Food Commissioner H. P.
Potter has two hundred and fifty pounds of butter, and is looking for violating the food laws of the state. One was a merchant in Norwich, who is accused of selling adulterated butter, and the other a merchant in Danbury, who is charged with selling adulterated meat. It is probable that both cases will be prosecuted—Hartford Contract.

Objection from State Hospital.

Because the drainage from the Sholes farm is into the reservoir of the state hospital, the drainage is a matter of trustees of the institution will object to the location of the sanatorium on that place, the drainage being one of the matters which the commission considered here Thursday.
